[4] WHAT You WILL* STC, 17487, m e m The Works of John Marston, edited by A H Bullen, 1887, vol n This play is important for an understanding of the prevailing spirit of disillusion, especially amongst intellectual young men of the post-Armada generation Marston, through the person of Lampatho, has expressed much of his own feeling of the futility of academic study In the Induction he replied generally to Jonson's attacks, but in contrast to Jonson's arrogant self-praise, he affected an excess of modesty The play was not published till 1607 Approximate date

i$th November THE QUEEN SENDS FOR MR SPEAKER D'Ewes' Journals, p 651

i.6th November THE QUEEN'S MESSAGE TO THE HOUSE D'Ewes' Journals, p 654

^th November SIR FERDINANDO GORGES TO BE RELEASED APC, xxxii 387

THE PARLIAMENT D'Ewes' Journal,* p 655 There were several other cases of abuse of privilege in this Parliament

28/A November A PROCLAMATION CONCERNING PRIVILEGES Proclamations, 388 , see 28th March, 1600

y>th November THE QUEEN RECEIVES THE MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE D'Ewes' Journals, p 658

ist December THE PARLIAMENT D'Ewes* Journals, p 660 Another example of the general discontent, expressed, for instance, in Hamlet's disgust at the whips and scorns of time

JONSON'S APOLOGY As for i5th September Approximate date

2,nd December THE PARLIAMENT D'Ewes* Journals Master Carew Ralegh's proper sentiments are the more commendable since he had the reputation m 1594 of being a loose-tongued atheist, see I Ehx Journal, P *95

^th December THE EARL OF NORTHUMBERLAND Secret Correspondence, p 29

6th December THE DUKE OF BIRON'S VISIT APC>xxxu 415

gth December THE PARLIAMENT D'Ewes' Journals, p 674

toth December WATSON'S QUODLIBET STC, 215123 Although dated 1602 the book was in circulation before Christmas (see Foley, i, 8) , it is a storehouse of anti- Jesuit scandal and anecdote

i2M December DISORDERS IN THE HOUSE D'Ewes' Journals, p 682

i6ti December A FUNERAL SERMON PUBLISHED A R, m 197 , S T C, 12866 The book was very popular, and went into five editions

19^5 Decemler THE PARLIAMENT DISSOLVED D'Ewes' Journals, pp 618, 689 , Wilbraham's Journal, p 44 D'Ewes entirely omits the speech

2oM December A NOTE OF THE CHIEF STATUTES ENACTED IN THE LATE PARLIAMENT S T C, 9493, etc

2irf December THE GREAT DANGER AT OSTEND A R, m 199 , S TC$_t$ 24651 Also A true and historical relation of the bloody battle of Nieuport together with a brief relation of Sir Francis Vere his parley at Ostend, etc, by Henry Hexham , much of this account is included